

Creation Science

Part 7

By Pastor Grant Williams

Genesis 1:1 KJV

1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

I have a theory... about 6,000 years ago God created everything.

I have a theory... about 4,400 years ago there was a flood.

God's Word is true, the unfolding of His Word will give understanding, comprehension and discernment to all of life's questions. The answers are not just for you but for those in your life and the one's that God will put in your path. "Within the covers of the Bible are the answers for all the problems men face." - President Ronald Reagan

1 Peter 3:14-17 AMPC

14 But even in case you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, [you are] blessed (happy, to be envied). Do not dread or be afraid of their threats, nor be disturbed [by their opposition].

15 But in your hearts set Christ apart as holy [and acknowledge Him] as Lord. Always be ready to give a logical defense to anyone who asks you to account for the hope that is in you, but do it courteously and respectfully.

*16 [And see to it that] your conscience is entirely clear ([a]unimpaired), so that, when you are falsely accused as evildoers, those who threaten you abusively and revile your right behavior in Christ may come to be ashamed [of slandering your good lives].

*17 For [it is] better to suffer [unjustly] for doing right, if that should be God's will, than to suffer [justly] for doing wrong.

2 Peter 1:19-20 AMPC

19 And we have the prophetic word [made] firmer still. You will do well to pay close attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dismal (squalid and dark) place, until the day breaks through [the gloom] and the Morning Star rises ([a]comes into being) in your hearts.

Science continues to prove the Bible is true!

Psalm 119:130 AMPC

130 The entrance and unfolding of Your words give light; their unfolding gives understanding (discernment and comprehension) to the simple.

Psalm 119:105 KJV

105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

The psalmist wrote...

Psalm 8:3 AMPC

3 When I view and consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained and established,

He sat down and considered, thought about, contemplated, reflected etc.

Psalm 39:3 AMPC

3 My heart was hot within me. While I was musing, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:

Psalm 143:5 KJV

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

Psalm 143:5 AMPC

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your doings; I ponder the work of Your hands.

To muse: to become absorbed in thought; to think about something carefully and thoroughly.

What and or who is it that we idolize? Who are we impressed by and why? What do we spend out time doing? Desiring? Learning more about? Are we spending much of our time amusing ourselves?

In part 6 we went thru some “things” utilizing science that the evolutionists believe and is science to show there theories are impossible...per their own measurable, testable and observable facts.

Let’s go thru some more examples, remember...

Romans 1:22 KJV

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

Romans 1:22-32 AMPC

22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools [professing to be smart, they made simpletons of themselves].

23 And by them the glory and majesty and excellence of the immortal God were exchanged for and represented by images, resembling mortal man and birds and beasts and reptiles.

24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their [own] hearts to sexual impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves [abandoning them to the degrading power of sin],

25 Because they exchanged the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, Who is blessed forever! Amen (so be it).

26 For this reason God gave them over and abandoned them to vile affections and degrading passions. For their women exchanged their natural function for an unnatural and abnormal one,

27 And the men also turned from natural relations with women and were set ablaze (burning out, consumed) with lust for one another—men committing shameful acts with men and suffering in their own [a]bodies and personalities the inevitable consequences and penalty of their wrong-doing and going astray, which was [their] fitting retribution.

28 And so, since they did not see fit to acknowledge God or approve of Him or consider Him worth the knowing, God gave them over to a base and condemned mind to do things not proper or decent but loathsome,

29 Until they were filled (permeated and saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness, iniquity, grasping and covetous greed, and malice. [They were] full of envy and jealousy, murder, strife, deceit and treachery, ill will and cruel ways. [They were] secret backbiters and gossipers,

30 Slanderers, hateful to and hating God, full of insolence, arrogance, [and] boasting; inventors of new forms of evil, disobedient and undutiful to parents.

31 [They were] without understanding, conscienceless and faithless, heartless and loveless [and] merciless.

32 Though they are fully aware of God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve to die, they not only do them themselves but approve and applaud others who practice them.

The National Science Foundation Ice Core Facility, known as the National Ice Core Laboratory before 2018, is the primary repository for ice cores collected by the United States. The facility is located at the Denver Federal Center in Lakewood, Colorado, and is managed by the United States Geological Survey.

This facility has a giant freezer that stores ice cores at 36 degrees below zero. They collect samples from around the world for testing and one of those places is Greenland. They take a very long pipe and drill into the ice and pull it out and store it for testing.

The NSF Ice Core Facility believes that each layer represents annual rings because in summer the top layer of snow melts and re-freezes as clear ice or which shows up dark (blueish in color). In winter the snow packs and show up as a light layer. Each arrow they say, represent a new year, and the layers represent summer/winter, summer/winter of the color changes.

The deepest hole they have ever dug is 10,000 feet deep. They counted the ice rings and there were 135,000 rings. They don't believe the earth is only 6,000 years old because their dig of only 10,000 feet deep tells them the earth is 135,000 years old... basically, it makes sense to them. Or could it be, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools" (Romans 1:22 KJV) ? The NSF Ice Core Facility researchers or scientists were assuming those were annual rings...

In World War 2 some airplanes got lost and landed in Greenland in 1942 - this was the Lost Squadron. The planes were left there until a millionaire from Kentucky had an idea, let's go find those airplanes and bring them home.

They used ground penetrating radar to penetrate the ice and they located the planes (P-38's). The lost squadron was covered by 263 feet of ice in 48 years. They created a hole down thru the ice and took the plane apart and brought it back up disassembled in pieces and later reassembled in Middlesboro, Kentucky.

The planes were in the the ice for 48 years and were 263 feet down which equals an accumulation of roughly 5 1/2 feet per year. Remember, the deepest hole ever dug is 10,000 divide by 5.5 = 1,824 years.

Note: Deeper ice layers compress into finer layers so 4,400 years to accumulate that amount of ice is not problem. So, why isn't there more ice at the North and South Poles?

Bob Cardin who helped dig out and restore the P-38 was asked if they hit ice rings on their way down. He responded, "yes, several hundred of ice rings - light/dark, light/dark" well, shouldn't there about 48 if it was buried for a fact 48 years ago?

Note: at 62 feet down they hit a plywood cover left after a 1983 expedition eight years earlier which is 8 feet per year. In one stretch they hit 35 rings in just a few feet.

Bob Cardin explained that the layers don't represent years (summer/winter, summer/winter) it represent: cold/warm, cold/warm. We can get 10 of those per week in Michigan. Some scientists still refer to ice core lines as annual layers when they are from warm and cold spells... that is a fact. In Alaska it is not uncommon to get 15-20 distinct layers of snow in 8 hours.

This same ideology or theory is used for layers of the earth. It is taught that each layer represents a different age...the entire geologic column is false.

Many of the worlds petrified trees are found standing straight up connecting rock layers. Petrified trees connecting all of these layers can't represent millions of years old... it is impossible.

There are hundreds of petrified trees in Tennessee and the top and bottom of the trees, they are in coal seams and the middle is petrified... according to the the geologic column this dates these trees at millions of years different in age... impossible.

The image below is a picture of a petrified Ichthyosaur giving birth... fossilization is not a slow precess.

The image to the left is a petrified cowboy leg found (in the boot) in a dry creek bed near West Texas town of Iraan in 1980 by Jerry Stone, an employee of Corvette Oil Company.

I have a theory... about 6,000 years ago God created everything.
I have a theory... about 4,400 years ago there was a flood.

In the gulf of Mexico, Chevron was drilling for oil they went through a vertical tree over 60 feet tall drilling thru mud at 14,000 feet below the surface... how did that happen?

The oldest tree on the planet is a Bristlecone Pine and scientists have found that the oldest tree in the world is 4400 years old.

In eastern California, a Great Basin Bristlecone Pine (known as Methuselah) has long been considered Earth's oldest living thing according to tree-ring data (not all tree rings are exact science - some trees have 2 rings per year). But Methuselah is 4,400 years old (or so) — meaning it was well established by the time ancient Egyptians built the pyramids at Giza.

While Methuselah's precise location is kept under wraps to protect it from harm, there's much the science community knows and can prove about this living relic. These trees grow at the uppermost edge of the timberline, among the windswept peaks of California, Nevada and Utah.

I have a question and I'm sure you do as well... if scientists and evolutionists tell me the earth is millions of years old, why can't they find a tree older than 4400 years?

I have a theory... about 6,000 years ago God created everything.
I have a theory... about 4,400 years ago there was a flood.

This is what the Apostle Paul wrote the church...

Colossians 2:8 AMPC

*8 See to it that no one carries you off as spoil or makes you yourselves captive by his so-called philosophy and intellectualism and vain deceit (idle fancies and plain nonsense), following human tradition (men's ideas of the material rather than the spiritual world), just crude notions following the rudimentary and elemental teachings of the universe and disregarding [the teachings of] Christ (the Messiah).

After someone from age 6 thru 18 goes to school, how do you think they will view the world? There is a very high probability they will view it as an evolutionist.

If the Bible or God is right about the beginning, I wonder if He is right about the end?

Isaiah 46:9-10 AMPC

*9 [Earnestly] remember the former things, [which I did] of old; for I am God, and there is no one else; I am God, and there is none like Me,
10 Declaring the end and the result from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure and purpose,*

Genesis 1:1 KJV

1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 Peter 3:1-6 AMPC

*1 Beloved, I am now writing you this second letter. In [both of] them I have stirred up your unsullied (sincere) mind by way of remembrance,
2 That you should recall the predictions of the holy (consecrated, dedicated) prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior [given] through your apostles (His special messengers).

3 *To begin with, you must know and understand this, that scoffers (mockers) will come in the last days with scoffing, [people who] walk after their own fleshly desires

4 And say, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the forefathers fell asleep, all things have continued exactly as they did from the beginning of creation.

5 For they willfully overlook and forget this [fact], that the heavens [came into] existence long ago by the word of God, and the earth also which was formed out of water and by means of water,

6 Through which the world that then [existed] was deluged with water and perished.

Matthew 19:4 AMPC

4 He replied, Have you never read that He Who made them from the beginning made them male and female

John 8:31-32 AMPC

31 *So Jesus said to those Jews who had believed in Him, If you abide in My word [hold fast to My teachings and live in accordance with them], you are truly My disciples.

32 And you will know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free.

The “Never Wrong” Prophet Hosea wrote...

Hosea 4:6 AMPC

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge
